neutral correspondent who arrived in Holland a few duya ago and writes to the Cologne Garette.

The compaign of Gen. Smuts in German East Africa is more or less of a failure. The former Boer leader undoubtedly galared same successes after he began his operations, but in October and November of last year he suffeced geveral disastrous defeats and when

The Brilish troops in the German colony have been much weakened by mainris and other diseases and 1 know positively that their numerical strength is 40 percent less than a year ago. One British column of 1500 men was completely destroyed and the Germans captured a whole mountain battery, together with 12 field guns, over 20 machine guns and large quantities of war material of all kinds.
